Adolescents & Youth Programming in Emergencies

Why focus on adolescents and youth?

- Ensure that the specific issues of adolescents and youth are addressed in education in emergencies policies and programming
- Provide those working in the field of emergency response with tools and guidance to address those needs

Adolescents & Youth Programming in Emergencies

The Training Module:

- 90-minute powerpoint
- Facilitator's guide
- Supplementary exercises

Adolescents and Youth Programming in Emergencies

Objectives:

- I. Identify challenges and vulnerabilities and understand young people's capacity to make valuable contributions
- II. Review good practices and specific recommendations for effective, quality programming for adolescents and youth
- III. Learn practical ways to promote meaningful participation for adolescents and youth

Cultivating the Potential of Young People

“Bursting with energy, curiosity and spirit that are not easily extinguished, young people have the potential to change negative societal patterns of behavior and break cycles of violence and discrimination that pass from one generation to the next.”

-UNICEF
